Why Form a Company in Panama

Panama is one of the most popular and established tax havens. Panama is also well known for its highest confidentiality and privacy. A Panama company is usually used by individuals who are interested in global asset protection, privacy, tax minimisation and affordability.

For Panama Offshore Companies there are no statutory requirements of accounting and audit. It is the Directors responsibility to keep records of the company, it is also their choice what records are stored. Annual meetings for the Directors and Shareholders are not required, although the Directors may decide that they wish to conduct annual meetings. If a meeting is held, it should be held within Panama unless otherwise stated within the Articles of Incorporation.

Panama offers the strictest corporate book and banking secrecy laws available in the world. A Panama company formation provides legal protection of your assets and your identity through the confidentiality of business and banking transactions being conducted through a Panama Company.

Tax Information for your Panama Company Registration

One of Panama's main tax advantages is due to the fact that it has a territorial tax system. This means that there is no tax on any income which is earned outside of Panama. This applies to both personal and business income.

Panama Companies are required to pay income tax when a company is trading within Panama or for any individuals employed in Panama. If a Panama Company is conducting business outside of Panama, it is exempt from all local taxes including income tax, capital gains tax, dividend tax and stamp duty on transfer of corporate taxes and other property.

Company Name

When choosing a company name for a Panama company formation, the name can be in any language as long as it is unique and ends with the following phrases or abbreviations Corporation (Corp), Incorporated (INC), Sociedad Anonima (S.A.).

Limited or Ltd may not be used at the end of a company name.

The company name should be unique and therefore different from companies that are already registered with the Panama authorities.

Directors, Shareholders and Secretary

For a standard Panama company formation, a minimum of one Shareholder and three directors is required. The Directors and Shareholder can be any nationality and they can reside anywhere in the world, corporate Shareholders are permitted.

The details of the Directors and Shareholder are not displayed on public records. Nominees are also permitted.

Share Capital

The standard currency for a Panama company formation is USD, and the standard authorised share capital is 10,000 USD divided into 10,000 shares worth 1.00USD. The minimum issued capital is either one share of no value or one shares with a value.

The company Share Capital does not need to be paid into a bank account before the company is incorporated.

The shares within a Panama company formation can be various classes, can have a value or may not have a value. The Shares can be registered or bearer, however strict regulations do apply to bearer shares.

Trust

We are able to assist with forming Offshore Trusts. A Trust is usually setup to manage assets, such as money, investments, land or buildings. If you would like more information on setting up a trust, please contact us with your enquiry.

Annual Requirements for your Panama Company Registration

For a Panama company registration, annual requirements are minimal. There is no requirement to file a company annual return. You will need to file your Accounts, our Panama Agent can assist with this if required.

It is a requirement that government fees are paid annually along with the renewal of the company registered office address and the registered agent - all of these services are included in the CFS annual renewal cost.

Yearly Renewal £525.00

On a yearly basis a Panama Company must be renewed with the Registered Agent and Authorities in Panama.

By renewing your company this ensures that it is kept in Good Standing with the authorities in Panama, there are no other accounting requirements for a Panama Company.

Any Nominee Officers will require renewing on a yearly basis.

The price for a Panama yearly renewal is £525.00

The following is included in a Panama yearly renewal:

- Registered Agent
- Registered Office
- Government Registration Fees
